

Dawn Beltz Dembrosky:

Dawn began her dance training in Wheeling, WV at the age of 8. She danced professionally for the halftime shows of the Wheeling Ironmen football team and opened up Jamboree USA every Saturday night for many top names such as Charlie Pride, Merle Haggard and Loretta Lynn to name a few. As a young dancer, she competed in PA Dance Masters with competition groups. Dawn holds an Achievement Award for the Arts from Bellaire High Alumni Association.

Dawn is.....

Currently President of Ohio Dance Masters Chapter #16

Has held the positions of:

Ohio Dance Masters Board Member for over 20 years

Academic College Scholarship Chairman for Ohio Dance Masters

Rules committee and publicity chairman for Ohio Dance Masters

Certified by test to teach all phases of dance and gymnastics.

National certified examiner for Dance Masters of America in tap, ballet, jazz and acrobatics.

Delegate for the Ohio chapter for Dance Masters of America

A 1989 graduate of Teachers Training School from Dance Masters of America

Has taught several acrobatic/gymnastic camps and scholarship classes.

She has taught for PA Dance Masters Acro Scholarship classes.

Choreographs competition routines for local high school cheerleading squads

Has choreographed several musicals and shows in the Ohio Valley.

Owns and operates All Valley School of Dance and Gymnastics in New Martinsville, WV. This is currently her 29th year of business.

Owns and teaches at her pre-school "The Little Red Schoolhouse", which is in its' seventh season.

Her students have earned numerous awards locally and on the national level.

Her Aces All Star Cheerleading squads have received the titles of National Champs and Grand Champions.

Some of her students are now dancing, cheering and performing professionally around the country.

Dawn was the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference drill team director for the McDonald's All Star Marching Band.

Dawn currently resides in Powhatan Point, Ohio with her husband Jeff and Rottweiler Ammo