

Sierra Roe:

Sierra started dancing when she was three years old at the Vicki Jo Dance Studio. She started competing in group competitions at the age of seven across the country. She then competed in solo competitions with the results in many awards. She also had the privilege of competing in the Miss Dance of Ohio two times. After high school Sierra followed her dreams to New York City where she studied dance and musical theater. She performed professionally at La Comedia theatre in Springboro, Ohio. Sierra is now a choreographer and assistant at Vicki Jo Dance Studio. Her choreography has won many performance awards, and Platinums. At Nationals, her production number won their division in the BIG SHOW naming them National Divisional Champs of 2013. She won several choreography awards as well. Sierra also teaches Zumba in her spare time. Sierra has grown up attending Ohio Dance Masters and is honored to be apart of such a wonderful chapter.

