

Kayleigh is a Cleveland local and graduate of the University of North Carolina - Charlotte graduating Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Dance with an Education concentration. While at UNCC, Kayleigh presented works at the American Collegiate Dance Association Southeast Conference and the North Carolina Dance Educators Annual Conference. She was a two-time recipient of the Dance Department annual scholarship that recognized her for academic and creative achievement in dance and education. Kayleigh has worked professionally in the Charlotte and Cleveland metropolitan areas as a dance instructor, stage manager and other backstage assignments. Since moving back to Cleveland, she has obtained her Acrobatic Arts Certification for Module 1 and became a Youth Protection Advocates in Dance Certified Educator.