

Suzy Straub is the Artistic Director of Straub Dance Center in Central Ohio, and has been passionate about dancing since she was a little girl. She loves teaching dance, and her commitment is demonstrated by the achievements of her students. Having been a member of Dance Masters since she was seventeen, she has trained and coached many award-winning and Professional Dancers including numerous title winners and four Radio City Rockettes. This past December she went to New York City to see several of her former students performing professionally. Barbara Jo Bednarczuk is appearing in Broadway's "My Fair Lady", Beth Johnson is Mona in Broadway's "Chicago", and McKenzie McGrath was a new Rockette. Suzy is a graduate of The Ohio State University, certified by Dance Masters of America in Ballet, Tap and Jazz, and was tested and certified in Ballet by the Cecchetti Council of America. She has taught and judged for many competitions all over the country and won many choreography awards. Suzy lives in Westerville with her husband Bill Kiefaber and their two children.
