

Tamala has been dancing since she was three years old and has an intense passion toward the art of dance and choreography. Tamala's students have performed and competed throughout Ohio and Dance Masters of America Nationals. She has had the pleasure to have taught scholarship classes for Ohio Dance Masters and Ohio Cecchetti Committee. Tamala has also taught summer workshop classes at other studios. She has judged for auditions and competitions and helped prepare students for interviews. Tamala has been a member of Ohio Dance Masters and Dance Masters of America for many years. Furthermore, Tamala has served on the Executive Ohio Dance Masters Board, in which she has held many offices including President. Tamala currently serves as a Past President, is head of the Auditing Committee, co-chairs the Bylaw Committee, and is in charge of the Scholarship Fundraiser for the Ohio Chapter. Tamala is also a member of the Cecchetti Council of Ohio and America, where she holds the position of Acting Recording Secretary for the Ohio Committee. Tamala has taught for other studios as well as her own students in the preparations for Cecchetti Ballet student exams.
